Last year, with our Culinary Episodes, we whisked you away on an armchair adventure, exploring the spices and regional recipes that define India's diverse culinary heritage. This year, we are celebrating the rich mosaic of cultures that form the bedrock of Indian cuisine. Presenting a selection of time-honoured recipes from across Indian cultures, reimagined with the signature bb touch, with global ingredients and techniques.

Explore nuances from different cultures and commence on a multifaceted journey through the landmarks of Indian heritage, brought to life on your plate, by bb

Miyazaki Amrakhand Dream Cake [ⓓ] [Ⓝ]

You've just polished off a delicious meal, and the sun dips below the horizon.
The perfect ending to this experience?
Aroma of the king of fruits, mango. That's the essence of the Miyazaki Amrakhand Dream Cake.
Inspired by the Maharashtrians' passion for mangoes and Western pastry, this dessert celebrates the western Indian traditions with a progressive spin.

At its heart lies the richness of Amrakhand, a Maharashtrian yoghurt dessert that whispers of saffron and sings of mangoes.
It is complemented by the sweet-tartness of the world's most expensive Miyazaki mangoes.
Anchored by a pound cake and finished with crispy sesame and white chocolate crackle, this ensemble gives a subtle nod to European confections.

Indulge in the simple pleasures - share a meal,
savour seasonal mangoes, and experience the delight of ab Miyazaki Amrakhand Dream Cake.
